PLAYER ADVANCEMENT

in Blood Bowl Sevens league play, players do not earn Star Player Points for their achievements. Instead, after every game, one player on your team will automatically gain new randomly selected Primary or Secondary skill.

There are two ways in which to determine the player and the type of Skill:

1. During Step 3 of the post-game sequence, a single player of your choice that played during this game and that did not suffer an Injury table result of 12, DEAD gains a randomly selected Primary skill.

Or

2. During Step 3 of the post-game sequence, a single randomly selected player that played during this game and that did not suffer an Injury table result of 12, DEAD gains a randomly selected Secondary skill.

Note that, due to the amateur nature of the game, and the somewhat miss team training provided, any additional Skills gained by Blood hit- and-

Bowl Sevens players are always randomly selected. The coach of a Blood Bowl Sevens team has to work with what they are given and, all too often, their players will waste everyone's time perfecting a truly mind-boggling and often completely futile set of skills and specialisms.

VALUE INCREASE

As players gain advancements, their value increases. To reflect this, whenever a player gains a new Skill, their Current Value must be increased on the Team

Draft list by the amount shown on the table below:

THE DRAFT

As players become more experienced, there is a chance they will be noticed by a professional team and be offered a chance to break into the big leagues.

When this happens, there is little a coach can do as their best player is poached on the vague promise of a huge salary, all the beer they can drink and fame undreamed of. It is little wonder that not many players refuse such an offer.

During Step 1 of the post-game sequence, whilst deleting any DEAD players from your Team Draft list, roll a D6 for every player on your team that has gained one or more additional Skills:

If the roll is higher than the number of additional Skills the player has gained, you have been lucky; no one else is interested in hiring them and they remain with your team.

If the roll is equal to or lower than the number of additional Skills the player has gained, they have been lucky: the player receives an offer from a professional team and immediately quits to pursue their dreams
